Fort Bragg Retiree Appreciation Days return

(October 11, 2016) FORT BRAGG, N.C. – Fort Bragg's Retirement Services Office and Womack Army Medical Center are hosting the annual Retiree Appreciation Days Oct. 21 and 22.

Retirees, their guests and Family members are welcome to attend and utilize the services offered.

"The Retiree Appreciation Days are a great source of the latest information for retirees and their Family members in the Fort Bragg community," said Kashjuana Adams, assistant retirement services officer. "This event provides retirees with an opportunity to make new acquaintances, renew ID Cards and receive various other services. We want to encourage retirees to come out and enjoy these events and take advantage of the many services being offered."

The event kicks off Friday, Oct. 21, with a Retiree Golf Tournament at Ryder Golf Course on Fort Bragg from 7 a.m. to 3 p.m. Registration is required with an entry fee of $40 and includes greens fee, golf cart, range balls and lunch. Prizes will be given to first, second, third and fourth place finishers.

A retiree luncheon will be offered at the Iron Mike Conference Center Friday, Oct. 21, from 11:30 a.m. to 1:30 p.m. Meal prices range from $17-19 depending on one's specific meal choice. A reservation is required.

WAMC will offer breakfast, medical and dental services Saturday, Oct. 22, starting at 9 a.m. There will also be a Shred-A-Thon in the parking lot.

Last year, more than 900 people received services at WAMC.

Identification card issuance and legal services will be available Oct. 22 at the Soldier Support Center, 9 a.m. to 2 p.m.

A shuttle will be available to retirees to facilitate travel between the different event sites.

For reservations or questions regarding any of the events, call the Fort Bragg Retirement Services Office at (910) 396-5304 or usarmy.bragg.imcom-atlantic.mbx.bragg-rso@mail.mil
